Recruiter
INVESTING IN TALENT
AWARDS 2020

COVID-19 Champion

This award is intended for the recruitment agency/RPO or individual that provided the most responsive, most urgent and most selfless support for clients, candidates or the wider community during the Covid-19 pandemic. Entrants should have exercised leadership, creativity, high morale, initiative and humanity to go beyond what might have been required during this time. Their actions will reflect well on the recruitment industry and demonstrate practitioners' commitment to the wellbeing of others.

Please note: Achievements outlined in the entries should have occurred between 1 February 2020 and 1 July 2020.

Entrant Details

Nominated by (name and job title)

Organisation name:

Entry Details

1. Describe your company, including: a) the sectors it covers, b) numbers of fee-earning staff and support staff, c) number of offices and locations, d) how many employees were hired between 1 January 2019 and 1 July 2020, e) staff turnover during the same period and f) base employment.

2. Tell us about the champion achievements of your company, a team or individual during the Covid-19 pandemic crisis Maximum length 250 words

3. How did these people or this individual make a difference during the crisis and its aftermath? Maximum length 250 words