

Most Inspiring Recruitment Agency Leader

This award is intended for a recruitment leader: chief executive or other C-suite executive, managing director or director in another key decision maker role who has inspired employees, contributes to and builds an outstanding workplace, and leads the recruitment industry and profession in setting the agenda for best practice. Also crucial to this award is demonstrated action and achievement in proactively recruiting diverse individuals for the leader's own company. This year, the award also offers the opportunity for recognition of achievements occurring during the global Covid-19 pandemic crisis involving the company, the profession/industry and the wider community.

Please note: Achievements outlined in the entries should have occurred between 1 July 2020 and 1 October 2021.

Please be aware shortlisted candidates for this award will be asked to attend an interview with the judges in Central London on 1 December 2021.
